

This is the Invitation to participate in the Zoom
virtual SEQS-2020 Conference

*“Quaternary Stratigraphy – palaeoenvironment, sediments, fauna and human migrations
across Central Europe”*

dedicated to the 70th birthday anniversary of Prof. Adam Nadachowski

Due to the pandemic, it is impossible to hold conferences and meetings, especially international ones, in a conventional form to which we are all used to. This situation also affects INQUA-SEQS meeting in 2020. Nonetheless, we are eager to invite you to Poland next year (September 2021).

We would also like to announce that we will organize an online meeting this year.

Virtual meeting is scheduled for 28th of September 2020.

The timetable will be given in September after participants' registration

We are pleased to invite you to participate.

Institutions supporting the conference:

INQUA – SEQS Section on European Quaternary Stratigraphy

INQUA – SACCOC Commission on Stratigraphy and Chronology

INQUA – International Union for Quaternary research

University of Wrocław

Polish Academy of Sciences

Committee for Quaternary Research, PAS

Polish Geological Society

PROGRAMME

September 28th 2020

THE ZOOM CONFERENCE

Opening Ceremony.

Oral session. Time for each contribution is set at 20 minutes (a talk – 15 minutes; discussion – 5 minutes).
